

I believe the national association of broadcaster's effort to restrict satellite radio traffic and weather should be rejected. i travel through the western states and coast, and it is very convenient for me to be able to plan travel routes and times because of the information provided by my satellite radio. the national association of broadcasters should focus on more important issues. this is not one of them